The Queen's Head strikes back with Star Wars Halloween treat

We've managed to combine the eerie fun of Halloween with the drama and excitement of the epic Star Wars movies this October 31, with an amazing event for children.

"Kids at The Queen's Head, Broad Chalke" presents two hours of intergalactic activities including a Star-Wars themed tea to set our younger guests up for an evening of trick or treating and Halloween happenings.

From 4-6pm, they will be able get starry-eyed as they meet Luke Skywalker, Han Solo, Princess Leia and C-3P0 and get spooked by the evil Sith Lord, Darth Vader. Partygoers can also dance with R2-D2 and try to get him to follow their commands.

The special tea, which is fit to sate the appetite of a Jedi Knight, features Tusken Raider Taters, Han-burgers, Obi-Wan Kebabs and Boba Fett-uccine followed by some Jabba Jiggle and Wookiee Cookies, all washed down with Yoda Soda! There will also be Halloween crafts, a Star War quiz with prizes and a goody bag to take home.

Tickets to this sensational party cost just £15, but places are limited so reserve a place soon to avoid disappointment. Bookings are being taken with a £5 non-refundable deposit - a special, fun homework assignment will be provided with the ticket.

And we've also got something for the grown-ups this Halloween: we are hosting a karaoke evening in the evening. Dressing up - in Stars Wars outfits or something more traditionally ghoulish - is optional, although we will be awarding a prize for the best costume.

•Just a reminder that we are now open all day, every day, including breakfast (served 8-10am).

If you want to know why we have a Discworld Baron in the pub, pop in and find out about this tribute to our late, great neighbour - and Queen's Head regular - Sir Terry Pratchett.

Festive celebration menu out now

This year we will once again be extending a warm, wintertime welcome to those who want to let us take the stress out of the Christmas Day cooking with our delicious lunch (noon-3pm). Priced at £59.95, it features a welcome drink, plus four courses with dishes to suit all tastes, including traditional turkey with all the trimmings.

There are also some special party menus for the run-up to Christmas, which offer a fantastic opportunity to those wanting to catch up with friends, family or colleagues for a seasonal celebration. Prices are £19.95 for two courses and £24.95 for three. £10 deposits per head are required. Children's meals cost half the price of adult menus.

We're also planning a great New Year's Eve event with a tasty buffet plus entertainment to get you in the party mood for seeing in 2016. More information will follow, but let us know if you want to be kept up to date with our plans.

Tasting Notes: Glorious Game cask ale

In our newsletters we like to highlight different Badger-branded beers produced by Blandford-based brewers Hall & Woodhouse. This time, we focus on a new seasonal ale, Glorious Game, whose launched is timed to coincide with the Rugby World Cup and Cask Ale Week (September 24 - October 4 - technically more than a week, but when it comes to good ale, who's counting?).

The ale is the result of a collaboration between the Hall & Woodhouse brewing team and Slovenian hop farmers. It combines British and European malt styles with a trio of Slovenian hops: aromatic, pine-like Dana and Bobek, plus citrusy Celeia to give a refreshing ale that's full of character.

Here's our at-a-glance guide, but if you want to try before you buy, ask for a sample at the bar:

Colour Golden

ABV 3.8%

A good match for... a Thai curry or hand-cured meats

Availability October to November as a cask ale
